

Alateen Begins in Pierce County

No dues or fees

Thursday, February 6th, 6 pm

First Presbyterian Church of Puyallup
412 West Pioneer Avenue, Puyallup, WA 98371
Upstairs in the Youth Room (follow the signs)

These meetings are for teens and run by teens.

Alateen is a safe place for teens who have been affected in any way by alcoholism in a relative or friend. It is a place they can belong and know they are not alone. Two trusted Al-Anon members who have been certified by Washington Area are Al-Anon members in Alateen Service (A.M.I.A.S.) in the Alateen meeting.

Ages
12-19

What can you do to help?

- ◆ Bring your teens or tell others who have teens or grand-teens about the Alateen program.
- ◆ Become an A.M.I.A.S. (Al-Anon Member involved in Alateen Service). Watch for A.M.I.A.S. trainings in the Scope.
- ◆ Donate new or gently used blankets, art supplies (coloring pages, paper, markers, pencils) fidgets.
- ◆ Announce Alateen in your meetings and share the flyer online with other members or in other districts.

For more information, please text the Pierce County Alateen Coordinator Monique at 253-230-4537.
