Sharing Our Horizons
Al-Anon Saturday Speaker Meeting

CANCELLED

Due to the need to wear masks indoors and groups that were willing to host, no longer being willing because of Covid, we will NOT have Speaker Meetings the rest of 2021.

Hopefully in 2022 we can resume this part of our Pierce County fellowship.

If you have any interest in being the Second Saturday Speaker Meeting Host beginning in January, please call or text Celeste at 253.226.0729. I would be happy to meet with you to discuss this Al-Anon Information Services (AIS) position and join you on the second Saturday (when we resume) to assist you for the first month or two.

Celeste at 253-226-0729.

Do You Know Your Group's Classification?

Below is the the information from the Delegate's Report at Fall Assembly about meeting classifications. Your group can figure out its correct classification. As things unfold, a group's classification will determine where/how they are represented in the Al-Anon service structure. The WSO will create at least one new Area for PEMs because they aren't tied to any geographic location. WA Area is exploring creating a new District for PEMs that want to be tied to Washington and have a voice at Washington Area Assemblies. But that all is still yet to be officially determined.

Clarification of Meeting Terms/Definitions

page2image13593088

1. Permanent Electronic Meeting (PEM) = virtual meeting; meets solely and permanently online
2. Hybrid Meeting = face-to-face meeting with Zoom meeting same day & time; both are connected
3. Temporary Virtual = meets electronically due to COVID or other reason with the intention of returning to face-to-face
4. Face-to-face (FTF) Meeting = meets in-person only; no virtual component
5. Concurrent meeting = was same meeting originally; now half-electronic and half-FTF which are not connected

Check out how your group is listed on District/Area/WSO websites and make sure all info is correct!
